

REGULATION ON Renault Trucks E-Tech T Design Contest

ARTICLE I : ORGANIZATION

RENAULT TRUCKS SAS with a capital of €50,000,000, entered in the Commercial and Companies Register of Lyon under number 954 506 077, with its head office at 99, route de Lyon, 69800 Saint-Priest, represented by Loïc Mellinand, SVP Marketing & Customer satisfaction, is organising the design contest for the new Renault Trucks E-Tech T.

The exclusive partners of this design contest are SCS Software and Thrustmaster.

All are defined hereinafter as the “Organizers”

This document defines the rules applicable to this contest hereinafter “the Contest”.

ARTICLE II: PARTICIPATION

The design contest will give anyone around the world (whose age is above the legal majority) who wants to get the opportunity to design an exclusive paint job for the new Renault Trucks E-Tech T. Modders will be able to unleash their creativity, as well as gamers, artists and designers, or just curious people.

To apply, a participant must drop designs of his/her creation (a “Design”) on a dedicated landing page <https://www.renault-trucks.co.uk/the-good-truck/design-contest> as per 2024 April 10th until 2024 June 25th.

The participant may drop up to 10 designs maximum but only one will be chosen among those.

In order to submit a Design, the participant must make sure that she/he has the right to do so. That means that the Design needs to be her/his original creation or an original creation which she/he has ensured the right to use before submitting it to the Contest. By submitting the Design, the participant warrants and represents (1) that it is an original creation for the sake of the Contest, (2) that she/he has the full and unrestricted right to submit it, and (3) that as far as she/he knows it does not infringe on any third party intellectual property rights, such as e.g. any known logotypes, fonts, visual designs, copyright-protected art or other creations made by anyone else. The participant hereby confirms that she/he grants the Organizer a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual and global license right to use, reproduce and make the Design available to the public, including to modify it for different purposes and to publish it in different types of media, as well as to sublicense these rights to her/his Design to third parties. Organizer will name the participant as the original creator of the Design in a customary fashion in connection with any publications thereof.

The designs have to respect the legislation in force. In particular, shall be automatically rejected, without the list being restrictive, all Designs:

- With an indecent, pornographic or racist nature
- With a defamatory or insulting nature and/or a nature slanderous for a third party,
- With a political nature and/or judged sensitive by the Organizer
- Which violate the private life, the copyrights of a third party and/or in contradiction with the current laws
- Which is contrary to morals and/or public order
- Reproducing an element subject to third party’s intellectual or industrial property rights (such as a trademark) without a prior authorization.

In any case, participants are allowed to integrate the RENAULT TRUCKS brand in their Design.

Any participation not complying with the terms above shall not be taken into account and shall cause the nullity of the participation.

There will also be an option to make anyone else (whose age is above the legal majority) participates in it too - by putting special color images available and for download on this same landing page. Anyone will be able to design in any painting application, or even print it and sketch it on a table at home with their kids, and maybe be selected by our jury to be part of our 5 finalists (after a graphic rework of their creations).

Beforehand, the participant fills a form with her/his information such as last name, first name, email address, country and the application images.

This landing page will be shared by Renault Trucks, its network, SCS Software, Influencers, journalists mainly through their social network respectively.

The attendance to this contest is free of charge and implies the full, entire and unreserved participants' agreement to these rules.

Any participant who would not respect these rules, the legislation in force will not be allowed to attend this contest and its attendance will be cancelled.

The organizer may exclude anyone who has cheated, defrauded, rigged or disturbed the operations described in these rules or has attempted to do so.

ARTICLE III: DECLARATION OF WINNERS

A jury composed of Renault Trucks employees and SCS Software members will pick 5 best and most creative designs, based on aesthetics, feasibility, originality, the "finalists", from which our community (the voters) will decide the ultimate winner in a public vote that will take place from July 1st to July 8.

The results will be communicated after the vote.

In the event of a tie, the jury will draw lots.

The finalists and then the winner will be informed by one of the selection jury members with the information (name and email address) written in the form.

ARTICLE IV: PRIZES

Renault Trucks team, under the Design Department supervision; will create an actual truck according to the final winning design.

The winner may be interviewed and celebrated in future communications of Renault Trucks and SCS Software.

The winner will be invited to Lyon on an all included trip during which the following activities will be proposed:

- Test on the Evolution range and the truck bannered with her/his design
- Museum's visit all around Lyon dedicated to Renault Trucks History
- Visit of Powertrain plant (Venissieux) and Manufacturing plant (Bourg en Bresse)

The organizer shall not be liable for any difficulties, prejudice, which could occur during the trip and especially administrative matters, customs or medical matters.

The prize is offered as-is and no equivalent could be requested.

If the situation demands it, the prize could be substitute but only on the organizer initiative.

The winner will handle on her/his own all administrative procedure in order to benefit of the prize.

If, for any reason independent from the organizer's will, the prize could not be awarded in the timeframe proposed, it would be definitely lost for the winner and could be granted to the next participant chosen on the list coming out from the vote.

The 5 finalists (including the winner) will also be rewarded with lots from the partner: Thrustmaster. They will all receive a T-248 pack (including T3PM pedals-set), each valued at 350$, and a SimTask Steering Kit and a TH8S Shifter add-on.
